Choral Prayer at the Close of Day

We welcome the Pittsburgh School for the Choral Arts to Compline!

Concentio is one of the most advanced girl choirs of the Pittsburgh School for the Choral Arts. Made up of girls in 8th through 12th grade from throughout the Pittsburgh region, the choir performs challenging three and four part women's choir repertoire and is known for their warm and beautiful sound. The choir has collaborated with Music in a Great Space at Shadyside Presbyterian Church, the Bach Choir, the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, Pittsburgh Festival Opera, the Holocaust Center of Pittsburgh, and more. Their performance in 2014 with the Pittsburgh Jewish Music Festival was named one of the 10 best classical music performances in Pittsburgh that year. The choir is usually led by founder and artistic director, Kathryn Barnard. Tonight, the choir is led by Barnard's assistant and Compline choir member, Emily Swora.
